

Trinity County Judge Doug Page is in his first term as Trinity County Judge. He took office on January 1, 2011. He is the son of Doris Meshell and the late Sammy Meshell, of the Westville Community, and Robert and Mary Page of Riverside, Texas. Judge Page is a graduate of Groveton High School and attended Angelina College, Lamar University and Sam Houston State University majoring in Criminal Justice. Prior to his election as county judge, he worked at the Texas Department of Criminal Justice and the Texas Department of Public Safety before retiring with 22 years of service.

Judge Page is a long time rancher in Trinity County. He is also a long time member of First Baptist Church Groveton and very active in his community.

He is married to Cathey Mochman Page who is a fourth generation Trinity County resident. They have two sons, Steven and his wife Krystle, and Derrick and his wife Laramie. Judge Page and Cathey also have two grandchildren, Hannah and Trey. They reside in the Woodlake Community.

* * *